Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

Reinsurance Group of America, Incorporated (the "Company") disclosed in its 2006 proxy statement that, in March 2004, its board of directors adopted Policies on Communications (the "Communications Policy"), which describe the methods for interested parties to communicate directly with the presiding director (Mr. Leland C. Launer, Jr.) or with the non-management directors of the Company. The Company also disclosed that the Communications Policy is available on the Company's website.

The Communications Policy contained on the website, which is www.rgare.com under "Corporate Governance," indicates that interested parties should submit any communications to any such person in writing, addressed to such person in care of the General Counsel.

On November 2, 2006, the Company received notice from The New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") that, pursuant to Rule 303A.03 of the NYSE's Listed Company Manual, the Company should have specifically described the Communications Policy in the proxy statement, and the policy should have specifically stated the address to which such communications should be directed, which is as follows:

General Counsel
Reinsurance Group of America, Incorporated
1370 Timberlake Manor Parkway
Chesterfield, MO 63017

The NYSE advised the Company that it could correct such noncompliance by filing a Current Report on Form 8-K describing the Communications Policy. Accordingly, the Company is supplementing its disclosures by filing this report on Form 8-K.

The Communications Policy also provides that the General Counsel will make a record of the receipt of any such communications and, if requested by such persons, sort and organize the communications and summarize information. However, all properly addressed communications will be delivered not less than once each calendar quarter, and will not be directed to or reviewed by management prior to receipt by such persons.
