In light of recent events surrounding Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (Lehman) and American International Group, Inc. (AIG), Reinsurance Group of America, Incorporated (RGA) is providing its exposure to each of these companies as of September 16, 2008.

RGA currently owns Lehman's senior and subordinated notes and preferred securities. These securities are classified as available-for-sale on the Company's balance sheet. RGA's investment in the senior notes totals approximately $9.9 million at amortized cost. These notes have recently traded at approximately 30-33 percent of par value. RGA's investment in the subordinated notes totals approximately $12.0 million, and its investment in the preferred securities totals approximately $8.5 million, on an amortized cost basis. These securities have recently traded at less than 4 percent of par value. In addition, the Company's funds withheld portfolio includes approximately $1.4 million in preferred Lehman securities. Securities held in the Company's funds withheld portfolio are not legally owned by RGA, but the investment performance of those securities affects RGA's investment income.

RGA currently owns senior and subordinated notes of AIG and several of its subsidiaries. These securities are classified as available-for-sale on the Company's balance sheet. RGA's investment in senior notes totals approximately $31.4 million at amortized cost. These notes have recently traded at 52-60 percent of par value. RGA's investment in the subordinated securities totals approximately $24.5 million at amortized cost. These securities have recently traded at approximately 21-29 percent of par value. In addition, the Company's funds withheld portfolio includes approximately $5.8 million in subordinated AIG securities. The trading values indicated above were prior to the U.S. government's announcement that the Federal Reserve will provide AIG with a 2-year $85 billion credit facility.

The Company continually evaluates all of its investment holdings for other-than-temporary impairments of value, and an impairment charge relative to some or all of the securities noted above is likely to be included in RGA's third quarter results of operations. However, any such charge is not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition or liquidity.
